POLICE CHIEF GIVES WARNING ON CHECKS

Secret Service Sets Up Rules To Observe

Chief of Police James G. Reardon announced today that the United States Secret Service at San Francisco again warns persons in this vicinity who receive or cash checks to be watchful for mail thieves and forgers, as many allowance and allotment checks are going astray and are being cashed on forged endorsements. Chief Reardon and the Secret Service urge that the following rules be observed:

TO THOSE WHO RECEIVE CHECKS

1. Never endorse a check until you are actually in the presence of the person who will cash it.
2. Have a good, deep mailbox. Have your name clearly printed on it. KEEP IT LOCKED!
3. Whenever possible, have your mail carrier deliver checks in person rather than to your box.
4. If you change your address, notify the post office immediately.
5. Cash your check at the same place each month. Cash it yourself! Don't send children to cash checks! This encourages juvenile delinquency.
6. Do not fold, pin or mutilate allotment or allowance checks!

TO THOSE WHO CASH CHECKS

1. Know your endorser!
2. Ask for positive identification. Before you cash a check, ask yourself this question—"If this check is returned, can I find the person who gave it to me?"
3. Never cash a check already endorsed. Have it endorsed again in your presence.
4. Require that all employees

Daly City Under Half Way To Goal

Any school child knows that a grade of 50 per cent isn't "passing." And Daly City hasn't even made 50 per cent—in its War Chest drive. Mrs. Marce Trier, chairman, announces that less than $2,000 has been raised here for this campaign which supports the services of America's armed forces, allied relief agencies, and local welfare organizations. This is less than the half-way mark to Daly City's quota.

It's not too late yet for every resident to do his share. Late donations may be sent in by check (written to the Daly City War Chest) to Mrs. Trier, 158 Woodrow street or donors may call Mrs. Trier at RAndolph 6652 and she will have a volunteer worker call and pick up the cash.

"How big is your heart?" is the question to ask yourself in contributing, the committee pointed out.

Hold Funeral Services For Edward W. Goldkuhl

Edward William Goldkuhl sr., pioneer Daly City resident, active in the local fire department since 1907, passed away suddenly, November 13. A resident here for the past fifty years, Goldkuhl made his home at 214 Miriam street. He is survived by his father, William Goldkuhl; his wife, Pearl Goldkuhl; his son, Edward William Goldkuhl jr.

Funeral services were held, Tuesday morning, November 16, at the W. C. Lasswell and com-

Red Cross Workers

The Red Cross workroom at Theatre hall will not be open during Thanksgiving week. Volunteer workers in both the sewing and bandage making divisions are advised to note that neither the Wednesday, November 24, nor the Friday, November 26, sessions will be held.

At the same time, leaders at the busy production room announced that more workers are urgently needed to meet the ever-rising quotas of work garments and surgical dressings necessary due to the war. Work turned out at the local headquarters aids both American servicemen and the refugees of war-devastated lands.

Hours are from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. every Wednesday and Friday. Local women are urged to do their share in this important project.

Brisk Workout For Local Firemen

The past ten days gave local firemen a brisk workout.

On Wednesday, November 10, 12:48 p. m., Sergeant Terragno of the South San Francisco Police department, notified the Daly City police of a fire at Colonial Inn. The Colma Fire department responded and extinguished a blaze in a bale of hay.

Companies 1 and 4 answered a call from Box No. 43 at Templeton and Bellevue avenues, which turned out to be a false alarm. The same sort of a pointless trip was in store for Companies 1, 2, and 4, November 13, 5:15 p. m., when they answered a call at Box No. 16, San Jose avenue and Flournoy street, another false alarm.

On Sunday at 1:05 p. m. firemen from Companies 1 and 4 rushed to 41 Shakespeare street

Schools Conduct Waste Paper Drive

Schools in the Jefferson Elementary district are conducting a waste paper drive in Daly City. The campaign will continue until the end of the month and R. L. Crane jr., superintendent and area salvage chairman, asks public cooperation.

Residents who have stacks of newspapers and magazines, tied in bundles with strong cord, may notify Crane by postcard addressed to 344 Santa Barbara avenue and a vehicle will call to pick up the donation. Only papers and magazines prepared in neat bundles can be accepted. No scrap paper or trash can be taken. Those who have children in school or who can contact a neighborhood pupil of the district schools may report their name, address, and willingness to give papers to the drive in that manner.

As an explanation of the drive, Crane quoted the bulletin sent

Draft Board Gets Card From Camp Peary Man

Daly City Draft Board No. 103 received a picture postcard from Camp Peary, Virginia, this week. It was from Dan Lopez, who formerly lived on Bepler street here, and enlisted in the U. S. Navy, May, 1943.

He wrote: "Now that the hard part of training is over and I'm not mad any more, I'm saying hello. I know lots of fellows go through your office so you probably don't remember me, but I'm writing because I remember you

This Will Be Second War-Time Thanksgiving

Daly City will observe its second war-time Thanksgiving, next Thursday, November 25.

All city offices, except the police department, will be closed for the day as will banks, business houses, and stores. Although official notice has not been received, it is likely that the local post office will remain closed.

Jefferson Union high school and the schools of the Jefferson Elementary School district will be closed the entire week due to the Thanksgiving and Teachers' Institute. At the high school, night school, gymnasium and pool activities will not be in session during the week.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help parochial school will have Thursday and Friday, November 25 and 26, only as holidays.

The Daly City Record, carrying the regular Thursday date line, will arrive at the door of subscribers one day early, coming out Wednesday morning, November 24, to avoid late Friday delivery.

The Thanksgiving Day football classic between the Jefferson Indians and the South San Francisco Warriors will be held Thanksgiving morning at 10:45 o'clock on the South City gridiron.

NEW GAS MASKS

Arthur J. Bodien, director of Daly City's Civilian War Council, announced today that gas masks of the new type have arrived here for distribution to volunteer workers. Before they can be issued all the ones presently in circulation must be returned. Dates and places for the turning in of old masks will be announced, next week.

NEWS OF DALY CITY MEN AND WOMEN IN ARMED FORCES

SERGEANT EVELYN V. KENNEDY

Attractive Sergeant Kennedy, the former Miss Evelyn Ciemoli, is stationed in the recruiting office at Omaha, Nebraska, as stenographer to a captain in the U. S. Marines. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ciemoli, 813 Brunswick street, Daly City.

Sergeant Kennedy, the widow of Raymond E. Kennedy, one of the first Daly City men to be killed in World War II, took her basic training at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

"From a crew of twenty men, our office force is down to four girl Marines and 3 male Marines. The other thirteen men have already been transferred to line and overseas duty, so the girls are definitely doing a great part in the war as you can see by our group," Sergeant Kennedy wrote The Record, last week.

Sergeant Kennedy, who is remembered in Daly City as winner of several state and national typing and shorthand contests, reports that she really enjoys her job and likes to feel that she is one of the girls who "free a Marine to fight."

FLIGHT OFFICER

The Public Relations office at the Advanced 2-Engine AAF Pilot school, Marfa, Texas, announces that Elliott J. Sidey, son of Mrs. Lela M. Sidey, 164 Los Banos avenue, has received wings and appointment as a flight officer for the Marfa, Texas, AAF Pilot school. The announcement was made by Colonel Donald B. Phillips, commanding officer.

Sidey completed a course in training in twin-engine planes. He was assigned to Marfa from Pecos Basic Flying school, Pecos, Texas. He is a former student of Jefferson Union high school.

AVIATION CADET

Aviation Cadet David A. Grenier, 22, has just completed the Army's Primary Flight Training course at Thunderbird field No. 1, Glendale, Arizona, and has now commenced his basic flight training at another air field.

Aviation Cadet Grenier, the son of Mrs. Mary Grenier, 1130 Brunswick street, is a graduate of Jefferson Union high school.

He entered the armed service, February, 1943, at San Francisco. Previous to going to Thunderbird field he served at the Santa Ana Army air base, Santa Ana.

Aviation Cadet Grenier is married. His wife resides at 101 Allison street, San Francisco.

William Dunne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Matteoda, 340 Lowell street, was home, this week, on furlough after completing his training at Farragut, Idaho. He is now an electrician's mate, third class, and will be assigned to active duty immediately.

Dunne is a graduate of Jefferson Union high school.

Flier Graduates

Here's the official U. S. Army photo of Conrad A. Desaulniers, Colma man, who was just graduated from the Army Air Forces Central Flying Training command in the Southwest. Desaulniers was at the Ellington advanced pilot school. Ceremonies were held, November 3.

Upon completion of an intensive 10-weeks course in the maintenance and repair of the peeps and jeeps, scout cars and trucks that give the hard-hitting armored divisions their speed of movement, a class of qualified automotive mechanics were graduated, this week, from the Armored school.

Among the graduates, announced from the office of Major General Alvan C. Gillem jr., Chief of the Armored Command, was Private John L. Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Peterson, 7240 Mission street.

The soldier students received thorough instruction in the theory of automobile mechanics and fundamental shop practice in the school's Wheeled Vehicle department. They studied actual engines, skeleton vehicles and visual aids of many types.

who cash checks shall initial them.

The Secret Service has, since 1938, been engaged in a program of crime prevention and in that time counterfeiting has dropped 97 per cent through educating the public in a "Know Your Money" program. It is hoped that the present campaign against the check thief and forger will reduce this activity as much and, in addition, help to reduce the juvenile delinquency which has recently been on the increase in many communities. Chief Reardon states that every effort will be made to make this program successful here.

all. Boy, can I go for 'Frisco Fog' now!"

Lopez is a stevedore instructor at Camp Peary.

Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk, reports that the board has just received notification of a quota to meet for December 10. It is for 42 men. On November 26, the local headquarters is scheduled to induct eleven men.

Among those inducted, November 5, was Guido Cameli, 134 Acton street, who was accepted by the U. S. Marine Corps.

Mrs. Flynn again reminded Pre-Pearl Harbor fathers to be sure to advise the board of any address change. In sending out the recent questionnaires on family and occupational status, many fathers had moved as the notices were returned to the local board for incorrect address.

Both Basketball Squads Victorious

Easily winning both contests, the Jefferson Union high school basketball teams triumphed over Palo Alto on the local floor, on Wednesday of last week. The 110s romped home with a 33-5 score, while the 120s won, 29 to 15.

Opening the game for the 110s were Root and Decker, guards; Parodi, center; and Greenough and Piccard, forwards, with Grimes seeing considerable action later in the game at forward position. Starters in the 120 contest were Chelone and Denning, forwards; Perada, center; Welsh and Grant, guards; and Fair, substitute forward.

This afternoon (Thursday), at 3:15, the two teams will meet San Jose high school in the southern city. Both games are important, since the San Jose 110s are undefeated this season, while the 120s of San Jose, Jefferson, Sequoia and San Mateo are in a four-way tie for the league lead.

Next Wednesday, November 24, Coach Elman Rose will pit his 110s and 120s against San Mateo on the Daly City floor, in games which start at 3:15 p. m. These will be the final contests of the league season.

Already the 130s and varsity have started practice under the direction of Coach Rose. A night basketball league, with six teams entered, has also been formed at the Jefferson gymnasium. Entrants include two squads from San Francisco, three from Daly City, and one formed by servicemen stationed in this vicinity. Two games are played on Tuesday and Thursday nights, starting at 7:20 and 8:30 p. m. No admission charge is made for spectators.

OPA Asks Motorists Not To Seek More Gas

Mileage rationing officials of the San Francisco District Office of Price Administration appealed today to motorists holding "B" or "C" supplemental gasoline allotments not to apply for adjustments because of the recent coupon value cut unless they are in preferred categories such as doctors and war plant employes.

Motorists in these preferred occupations, whose driving has been affected by the cut, should not apply for a renewal until they have an estimated 30-day supply of gasoline rations left. Then they may apply to plant transportation

ISSUE REGISTRATION FIGURES FOR BOOK 4

War Ration Book Four has been distributed to 2,289,350 residents of 16 Northern California counties served by the San Francisco District Office of Price Administration, it was announced today by Francis Carroll, director.

Registration figures for War Ration Book Four represents an increase of 390,193 over the number of copies of War Ration Book One which was issued in May, 1942, Carroll reported. The latest registration figures also show an increase of 108,668 ration books issued since the distribution of War Ration Book Two in February, 1943.

In San Francisco county 675,306 persons obtained copies of War Ration Book Four during registration in October. This represents an increase of 16,613 over the number of copies of War Book Two distributed and 84,620 since War Ration Book One was issued during May, 1942.

Carroll declared that the OPA makes no claim that the ration book registration figures are an accurate indication of population, pointing out that many people register in the county where they work rather than in the county in which they reside.

Distribution of War Ration Book Four for counties in the San Francisco District in addition to San Francisco are as follows:

Alameda, 614,121; Contra Costa, 214,583; Del Norte, 3,432; Humboldt, 43,622; Lake, 7,362; Marin, 57,980; Mendocino, 21,073; Monterey, 82,637; Napa, 33,437; San Benito, 11,468; San Mateo, 133,557; Santa Clara, 185,423; Santa Cruz, 42,802; Solano, 93,270; Sonoma, 69,277. In every instance there is an increase in registrations over War Books One and Two.

Association Reveals Total In First Grade

There were 1,917 children enrolled in the first grade of the public schools of San Mateo county during 1942-43, compared with 1,460 for 1939-40, California Taxpayers' association stated today, making public its preliminary forecast of school enrollments in California for the rest of the current decade. The school year 1939-40 is the low point since 1919-20 for state-wide first grade enrollments.

The 596 children born in the county during the calendar year 1933, together with migration, made up the first grade enrollments of 1939-40, six and one-half years later, the association stated. Births during 1936, which formed the base for the 1942-43 first grade, numbered 563 in the county. Births for 1941, the latest year for which data are available, total 942.

The new prices in Daly City, effective on and after November 9, are as follows: young turkeys, under 16 pounds, 52 cents; young turkeys, between 16 and 20 pounds, 50 cents; young turkeys, over 20 pounds, 48 cents; old turkeys, under 16 pounds, 50 cents; old turkeys, 16 to 20 pounds, 48 cents; and old turkeys over 20 pounds, 46 cents.

A differential of one cent less for all grades of turkeys is allowed for stores in OPA-4 classifications, such as supermarkets and large chain stores.

All turkey sales to civilians were halted for a period of two months so that the War Procurement board could build up a sufficient stock to meet the holiday demands of the armed forces, but the birds are now available for civilians.

WHY ADD TO CONFUSION?

The problems of eating become daily more complicated. The Office of Price Administration plans to issue ration tokens before the first of the year.

William H. Albers, president of the Supermarket Institute, says that organization is definitely opposed to the scheme and that while "the idea has some advantages . . . its disadvantages far outweigh the desirable features. Because of wartime conditions, we are already overburdened with a multitude of problems. So far as I can determine, nobody in the industry favors this plan, but because somebody in Washington is taken by the idea, we and the consumers must prepare to adjust ourselves to a whole new ration procedure."

In states where sales tax tokens are now in use, consumers would carry such tokens, plus food tokens, point stamps and money, to buy a can of beans.

Many trade groups are expected to join in opposition to the token plan and consumer organizations will be enlisted to oppose this further complication in daily marketing.

SINGED WINGS

The people of the United States have been flying so close to the socialistic candle that some of them have had their wings badly scorched. They have been obsessed with the idea that they could get something for nothing by having the government furnish it. As a result, they are loaded with taxes to pay for "gifts" and government debts.

At last they are awakening to the fact that taxpaying private industry is more beneficial to the nation than tax-exempt government projects which must be paid for by taxes taken from the people. In speeches, newspaper editorials, radio talks and advertising copy of many industries, there is outspoken sentiment that the nation must go forward on the solid foundation of private initiative and enterprise which built it.

Recognizing the singed wings warning, Eric A. Johnston of Spokane, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, recently said: "There is some danger of America becoming totalitarian. Of course it would come under a form different than we understand it now. Unless that danger is averted, the peace of the world is endangered. Too much power should never be placed in the hands of government. We should tell the whole world that we will not preside at the liquidation of the American way of life."

It's worth getting our wings singed if it teaches us to keep away from the fire.

"DELINQUENT PARENTS"

Almost every community in the State is painfully aware today that one of the greatest war-born problems is that of alarmingly increased juvenile delinquency. Virtually every town is wrestling with the problem for which "delinquent parents" seem to be more to blame than the youngsters.

In San Francisco, Police Chief Charles W. Dullea recently announced that mothers and fathers of young offenders will be arrested. And in Sacramento police have hailed into court the parents of a youngster ten years old, on charges of failing to provide a proper home for him. Both were war workers and brought home a combined income of $4,000 annually.

Accompanying this shock treatment for parents, however, should be a broad educational program informing them of facilities available in their own communities for the safe amusement, care and guidance of children. Too few parents, generally speaking, know of or participate in the community work for the benefit of children.

Dads and mothers should make it their business to find out about such organizations, where they are located, how their facilities can be used, and also what they themselves can do to support and enlarge public work in children's behalf.

Our teen-age youngsters today represent the hope of the state and nation tomorrow. The problem of juvenile delinquency must be constructively approached, and attacked on every front, although the major battle must be waged in the home. That is where the main brunt of the struggle must be borne.

Ice Cream Means A Lot To Soldiers!

No one doubts that ice cream is popular here in the U. S. A. Current restrictions of supplies have only emphasized how much we all enjoy and use this favorite dairy food.

It has been a constant source of surprise, however, to many of our allies, how much ice cream means to U. S. soldiers far from home—how constantly they wish for it—how eagerly enjoy it when occasion sends it their way.

Latest story is from Australia, from which R. J. McNiven, prominent Sydney businessman, writes recently—"It has opened the eyes of Australians to see half a dozen Americans on leave coming from a shop, each with a half quart brick (of ice cream) in his hands, eating it with a wooden spoon as they ride around in trams. The quantity eaten by Americans has boosted the sale of ice cream generally and made the average Australian conscious of the fact that ice cream is not a luxury, but a food."

Cutting off of normal export markets has created a surplus of dairy products there, and the one flavor . . . or "flavour" as they say, of ice cream which can be made in as great quantity as they can get delivered, is vanilla! Touches a responsive chord in our memories, doesn't it?

McNiven says further, "The value of ice cream in maintaining morale is now recognized because the public get so much pleasure for so little money, for the expenditure of so little manpower."

OPA Makes Point Loan Arrangement

Wholesalers Eligible To Borrow Points Now

Consumers will find a wider variety of rationed meats available in butcher shops during the seasonal period of low meat production next spring through a point-loan arrangement authorized today by the Office of Price Administration, Francis Carroll, OPA district director announced today.

San Francisco District Office of Price Administration rationing officials announced details of the plan through which wholesalers with proper storage facilities can be loaned ration points to lay in supplies for the spring during the peak period of meat production between now and mid-January.

Wholesalers who have their own or public freezer space are eligible to borrow points for the purpose of building up stocks of veal, lamb, mutton and utility and canners and cutters grades of beef.

Application for a loan under the plan should be made direct to the Office of Price Administration, meat branch, food rationing division, Washington, D. C., on application form R-315. The form can be obtained at any local war price and rationing board. Applications may be filed between now and December 18, 1943, and any information for wholesalers can be obtained at the District OPA office, 1355 Market street.

OPA officials explained that the application form should show the maximum number of pounds of veal, lamb, mutton and utility and canners and cutters grades of beef which the wholesaler is able to store at one time.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

A rare and beautiful book is "The Little Locksmith" by Katharine Butler Hathaway. "The Little Locksmith" is the autobiography of a crippled girl, who managed to attain a full life for herself in spite of her physical handicaps.

KATHARINE BUTLER HATHAWAY

Katharine Butler was born in Salem, Massachusetts. For ten years—from the age of five to fifteen—she was confined to bed. But in spite of pain, they were oddly happy years. Like many sick children, she lived in an imaginative world of her own creation.

It was not until she was fifteen that she realized she would always be different from others.

She was shy and ill at ease with young people, until she discovered she had the gift of saying things to amuse them. And so, she writes, "I slipped into the ancient role that is always expected, it seems, of the imperfect ones of the world. I was Punch, the queer little human toy, the jester at court, respected and beloved in a way in which no other kind of person is respected and beloved."

She was in her early thirties when she made a drastic step. She wrenched herself away from her family who were so willing to protect her, and bought a big and beautiful house on the coast of Maine. Having a home of her own, being able to be hostess to her friends, did wonderful things for Katharine Butler. Her spirit of adventure developed; and she took trips—to New York, and to Paris. In 1932 she met Dan Hathaway and married him. In the peaceful and contented years that followed she wrote "The Little Locksmith." Shortly after it was completed, her health, which had never been good, began to fail. The literary recognition, which she had so wished for, came too late. She died at Salem on Christmas Eve—less than a year ago. Today her book, published posthumously, has been made a Book-of-the-Month selection.

Michael Padev, who was a political prisoner in Bulgaria after the Germans took over there, tells one amusing incident of prison life in his book, "Escape From the Balkans." One day there was a new arrival in the cell—Tseko the Pickpocket. The men asked him how he happened to be put with the political prisoners. "I," he said, "am an innocent victim of the political situation." One night, in the line of business, he had been in a flat, and was about to make a safe getaway, when the Gestapo came to arrest the sleeping owner for illegal possession of leaflets. In vain Tseko protested his "innocence." He was taken along as an accomplice.

Order Reduction Of Butter Prices

Lower butter prices went into effect in retail stores of Northern California, Tuesday, November 16, according to Francis Carroll, San Francisco district director of the Office of Price Administration.

The reduction of two to three cents per pound on butter sales in retail stores was brought about by a cut in the mark-up permitted wholesalers under OPA regulations. Butter prices will now range from 50 to 52 cents per pound, depending upon grade, in stores classified OPA-1, that is independent merchants doing an annual business of $50,000, and OPA-2, independent stores with annual sales volumes ranging from $50,000 to $250,000.

Specific cents per pound ceiling prices also have been set for the first time for the larger stores, which are classified OPA-3 and OPA-4. On the average these represent a few cents decrease from prices which prevailed prior to Tuesday.

Here are top ceilings for butter per pound in any store bearing the classification OPA-1 or OPA-2: 52 cents for 93 score one-fourth pound prints in cartons; 51 cents for 93 score one pound prints with or without cartons, 93 score one-fourth pound prints without cartons,

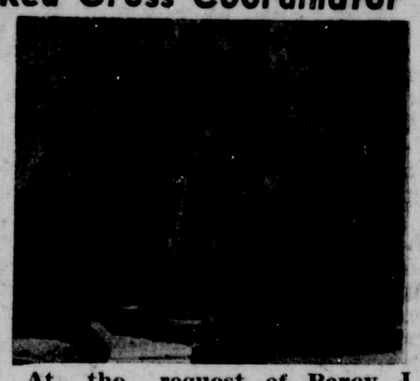
Red Cross Coordinator



At the request of Percy J. Shaw, chairman of the American Red Cross Disaster Relief work in San Mateo county, R. L. Crane jr., superintendent of the Jefferson Elementary School district, has accepted the position of Red Cross coordinator for Daly City.

Shaw's letter asking Crane to serve this community as coordinator read:

"I do not know of anybody who could handle the work better than you, and I should like to have you accept the position of Red Cross coordinator for Daly City, in which position you could oversee all of the Disaster Relief work. I should then like to have you suggest to me the name of someone to act as shelter chairman for each school. In this way you would be relieved of the direct responsibility of the shelters and could confine your duties entirely to the general supervision of the work of Red Cross Disaster Relief, and, in time of emergency, sit at the control table and keep me informed as to the needs of your community."

Crane serves on the Daly City War Council as a member of the local control center.

Waste Paper Drive

him by the War Production Board, General Salvage branch:

"Up to the present time, suppliers of waste newspapers and magazines have been just able to take care of mill requirements generally on the Pacific coast. The nation as a whole, however, is confronted with an alarming scarcity of waste paper on account of wood pulp shortage which in some sections may require the closing of mills. Tremendous demand for containers and other products of waste paper from the Army and domestic users has caused this unprecedented demand for waste paper. We are earnestly urged by Washington to include the State of California in the nationwide waste paper drive and to ship whatever surplus of paper over and above needs of Pacific coast mills to eastern mills and help to avert a shortage which has become critical."

Paper and magazines should be tied securely in bundles 30 to 50 pounds each, Crane advised.

Three soldiers, Thalia Rice, 330 Rio Verde street, Perdew Marlow, 164 Eureka street, and Ernest Ruiz, 107 Congo street, all of San Francisco, were jailed for being involved in a fist fight near the corner of Mission street and Templeton avenue, Monday, November 15, at 12:25 a. m.

Officers Roland A. Petrocchi and Roy Beecher made the arrests in the fight, which started at Tiny's, where the girl works.

The two San Francisco men, civilians, were out cold on the sidewalk when police arrived. The soldiers were released to the military police and the other men and the woman were freed on payment of $50 bail each to appear in court, Friday, November 19, 2 p. m.

At 5:45 p. m., Sundav, November 14, two San Francisco boys, 7 and 9 years old, were caught turning in a false alarm from Box No. 16, at the by now overfamiliar spot at Flournoy street and San Jose avenue. Sergeant Ricco Benedetti picked them up on Wilson street following a tip from William Loomis, 3312 San Jose avenue, and Camillo Boux, 124 Rhine street, who had seen the boys turn in the alarm. Companies 1, 2, and 4 responded. The boys and their parents were ordered to report to the police department where Fire Chief Andrew P. Chesney administered a stern lecture.

HORSEPOWER
TO BEAT AXIS ENSLAVED LABOR

If electricity flowing to war-busy California communities and military establishments could be seen and heard, the air over California would be awhir with the rush of winged horsepower reporting for duty.

War has brought a heavy demand for electricity. In a thousand and one jobs, electric horsepower is aiding in the victorious achievements in war production to beat the conquered and enslaved labor of Germany and Japan. In amount, this company is supplying power for war work equal to that needed to serve a city of 1,500,000 persons.

Meeting this war demand for electricity has taken planning ahead in engineering and purchasing and building. But what counts NOW are the men who have stayed loyally on the job of delivering this electricity. They are the power plant operators, the lake tenders, the linemen and the repairmen. They are our experienced old timers—2300 of our younger employees have gone to war.

From such a coordination of technical "know how" comes the effective delivery of electricity to military camps and war industries in dependable, unfailing supply.

Gas and Electricity are Vital in War Production —do not waste them!

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL INDIANS DEFEAT SAN MATEO

After taking four straight league losses, the Indians of Jefferson Union high school finally broke into the win column as they downed San Mateo, 6-0, on the Daly City gridiron, November 11. The game had been set ahead a day because of the Armistice Day holiday.

The lone score came late in the final period, after the two P. A. L. football teams had battled on even terms. The San Mateans were stronger on ground attack than the Daly City squad, which proved superior in passing.

Making a desperate attempt to get into scoring position before the closing gun, San Mateo gambled with a pass while deep in their own territory, and the throw was intercepted by the Indians on about the 40-yard line.

Moving down the field, the Indians found themselves faced by a fourth down with inches to go, on the visitors' 3-yard line. Faking a place kick for the goal, Nelson passed to Merle Van Kirk for the winning tally.

For the Jefferson starting lineup, Coach Marion Hall used Bill Reed and M. L. Greenfield, ends; Ernest Day and Richard Peterson, tackles; Wilbur Fellows and Harry Kent, guards; Ken Hatt, center and game captain; Merle Van Kirk, quarterback; Don Van Kirk and Don Nelson, halfbacks; and Tulio Picchi, fullback.

Tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the Indians will be sent up against the league-leading Sequoians of Redwood City, five-time winners in as many league starts this season.

Traditional rivalry will have its place in the Jefferson schedule on Thanksgiving Day, November 25, when the Indians go to South San Francisco for the annual contest. The South City team has had a season of ups and downs, and lost to Burlingame, 32-0, last week.

WAVES

No greater privilege was ever offered any woman than to don a Navy uniform and thus release a sailor to man our ships and fly our planes. That's what you do when you join the WAVES. You'll always be proud that you served, and the training, education and experience will enrich your life and expand your personality.

The Navy needs you. Pay is good, even compared with high war industry wages. Food, lodging, travel expenses and attractive uniforms ($200 to $250 worth to start) are included.

Learn, earn and serve... side by side with the Navy's fighting men. Call, 'phone or write your nearest Navy Recruiting Office.

THE WAVES DEPEND ON GREYHOUND

Greyhound serves the WAVES with vital transportation to and from the many bases where they are on duty. In addition, a large proportion of other service men and women travel by bus to training centers, embarkation points and on leave, and many buses are used exclusively to serve military camps. This diverts buses from civilian service; however, we are making every effort to take care of the traveling public under these difficult conditions, and greatly appreciate your cooperation.

California Leads In USO Operations

"California has 280 USO operations, many more than any other state in the Union." This fact was stated today by Henry H. Gutterson, USO West Coast Regional executive as an indication of the westward trend of war preparations. These USO operations include a vast network of mobile clubs on wheels reaching into remote areas in our mountains and deserts to serve isolated units and maneuvers.

USO, which is a major beneficiary of the California War Chest, now has 2,550 operations throughout the nation and overseas in this hemisphere, Gutterson reported. He emphasized the importance of community-conducted operations, local USO centers which are staffed by volunteer workers.

"Of the 2,550 total USO operations, 813 are community conducted clubs, information centers, lounges, and canteens manned by loyal hard-working volunteers—a spontaneous tribute of the American people to their men and women in uniform," he declared.

"When USO was founded by six well-known religious and welfare agencies," he said, "it was decided that each National club, so called, should be operated by one or more of these national agencies. They are: the YMCA, the National Catholic Community service, the Salvation Army, the YWCA, the Jewish Welfare board and the National Travelers' Aid association.

"But people in many communities eagerly began to organize services with funds from local chests or donations. Thus they met the needs in places where USO had not been requested to operate. As the number of men increases, many such communities are applying to USO for cooperation and are now being incorporated into the over-all USO program."

In addition, Gutterson said, "USO has an increasing number of clubs and services overseas in the western hemisphere in Alaska, Newfoundland, Bermuda, the Caribbean, the Canal Zone, on the east coast of South America and in Hawaii."

"In a working agreement with USO," he added, "this far-flung service is extended through the American Red Cross in the various theatres of war. Thus the people's patriotic giving, in the spring to the Red Cross and in the fall to USO, through the War Chest, provides for their men and women in the armed forces wherever they go."

Julia says— You Can Still Serve Salads

CRISP November days call for crisp and tasty salads! And they're so easy to make—just a few fresh vegetables and a bit of ingenuity, and you have a salad that perks up the whole meal and makes it rich in vitamins. For example:

Raw Vegetable Symphony

Mix together 1 cup each ground, shredded or chopped raw cauliflower, celery and carrots with 1 cup ground nut meats. Salt to taste. Mold by packing firmly in an individual custard cup. Turn out immediately on crisp lettuce leaves. Garnish with your favorite salad dressing to which 2 tbsps. lemon juice have been added and with ground nut meats or stuffed green olives. Serves 6-8.

Stuffed Cabbage Crown

For a buffet supper, hollow firm cabbage head with sharp pointed knife. Cut so edge is pointed. Fill cabbage shell with mixture of 1½ cups each of shredded cabbage, carrots, unpeeled red apples and a few raisins. Season to taste with salt and mix with your favorite salad dressing.

Mock Crab Salad

Pare and shred 2 cups raw parsnips. Add 2 tbsps. lemon juice and enough salad dressing to coat, immediately, so parsnips won't discolor. Add 1 cup diced celery, 1 onion finely minced and ¼ cup sliced stuffed or ripe olives. Salt to taste. Mix with dressing. Serve on lettuce cup with sliced hard-cooked egg garnish.

Wilted Lettuce

To bowl of torn lettuce or thinly sliced cabbage and grated carrots, gradually add hot mixture of the drippings of and 4 slices finely cut and fried bacon (or 2 tbsps. drippings alone), ¼ cup mild or diluted vinegar, 1 tsp. sugar, ½ tsp. dry mustard and salt and pepper to taste.

Golden Fruit Salad

Arrange on lettuce a combination of two sliced unpeeled red apples and sections of 1 grapefruit and 2 oranges. Top with salad dressing. Sprinkle with chopped nuts.

French Orange Salad

Arrange thin slices of dry onion between thick slices of orange, sandwich-fashion. Serve on lettuce. Top with French dressing.

Waldorf Salad

Mix 1 cup each sliced celery and diced tart apples. Add few broken nut meats and raisins. Mix with mayonnaise. Blend thoroughly. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves. Serves 4.

Pacific Greyhound Helps U. S. Navy Recruit WAVES

Lending aid to the U. S. Navy's recruitment program to enlist 20,000 more young women in the WAVES, Pacific Greyhound is carrying a large advertising message in more than 500 newspapers of California, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico and parts of Utah and Texas, urging eligible young women, not now engaged in war work, to volunteer for naval service.

"In ships, planes, and fire power," states Lieutenant Irene Williamson, who is the Twelfth Naval District WAVES procurement officer, "our Navy is now the greatest in the world. But ships and planes are useless without trained men to man them. The Navy must use thousands of Navy men now filling shore billets to man our new fleets. If those men are to be made available for combat duty, the young women of America must step in and take over their jobs. If scheduled offensives in this global war are to be carried out, the Navy must have 20,000 more young women by the end of this year to release men for combat service."

WAVES are trained at Hunter college in New York City and then assigned to Naval stations throughout the United States. Applicants for enlistment must be between 20 and 36 years of age, and have had at least two years of high school education. Young women meeting enlistment requirements are urged to apply at Women's Naval Reserve headquarters, Central Tower building, San Francisco, or any U. S. Navy Recruiting station.

Clears Confusion About Valid Blue Stamps

The only blue stamps valid for the purchase of rationed foods are X, Y, and Z in War Book Two, Francis Carroll, San Francisco district director of OPA, emphasized today in an attempt to clarify misunderstandings concerning the current stamps for processed foods.

The A, B, and C stamps in War Book Four also are valid at the present time for the purchase of processed foods, but Carroll said that some dealers were accepting blue stamps in the fourth war ration book through misunderstanding.

The current table of official point values posted in grocery stores carries the statement, "blue stamps must be given up for only the items which appear on this chart," and some food dealers interpreted this to mean blue stamps in War Book Four as well as those in War Book Two.

Here is the correct schedule of currently valid stamps for processed foods: Blue stamps X, Y, and Z in War Book Two, good until November 20, and green stamps A, B, and C in War Book Four, which became valid on November 1, good until December 20.

Intercity Buses Carry Huge Load

Intercity buses carrying more than one-half of the total number of passengers traveling between cities, use only 6 per cent of the crude rubber, and only two and one-half per cent of the motor fuel consumed by all commercial vehicles, according to F. W. Ackerman, vice-president of Pacific Greyhound lines, in quoting from a comprehensive study of wartime transportation problems recently made by the National Association of Motor Bus Operators.

Continuing, Ackerman stated, "Bus operators have been pioneers in rubber conservation, and the intercity bus lines average better than 40 thousand miles per tire, with many tires giving 75 thousand miles of wear. Even with this large mileage, when replaced for safety reasons, each bus tire still has enough rubber which can be reclaimed to make several passenger car tires."

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

ROASTING chickens and fowl, forequarter cuts and shoulder roasts of lamb, and a good supply of veal offer a pleasing choice to the Sunday-shopping housewife. There is not a great deal of pork, either fresh or smoked, and beef is no more plentiful than it has been for the past several weeks.

A good quantity of pears, at moderate prices, is reported by the A & P Food Service for Homemakers. The supply of both eastern and western apples has been reduced, due to ceiling prices. Florida grapefruit and oranges are now available.

The cranberry crop is less than last year's, but sufficient for the season's needs. There are plenty of Emperor grapes.

The unusual supply of potatoes calls for maximum consumption, and also for storage when possible to avoid spoilage and waste of any of this fall's record-breaking crop. Southern yams are plentiful and low-priced and vegetables of which there is no lack include white cabbage, yellow turnips, squash, celery, tomatoes, spinach and Florida string beans.

There is plenty of variety in the following Sunday dinner menus.

By Verna Moresco

MUSIC

Preparation for the operetta "H. M. S. Pinafore" has suspended. The chorus, under the direction of Oscar Busch, is preparing for a Christmas program. The main number of the program is "Hallelujah Chorus" from the oratorio "Messiah" by Handel.

Some members of the chorus are now participating in the San Francisco Municipal chorus. Those students are: Vivian Thorsen, Lillian Altman, Virginia Nestor, Phoebe Remington, Ken Hatt, Bob Olson, Fred Waterman, Lowell Coy, and Kenneth Bradshaw.

The San Francisco Municipal chorus is working on the "Requiem" by Brahms. It is to be given, December 7, with the San Francisco Symphony orchestra.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The regular meeting of the executive board was called to order, Tuesday, November 9, at 7:57 by Ken Hatt, president.

Jenny Giusti turned in her resignation as assistant yell-leader.

The cafeteria situation was discussed and there has been a noticeable improvement in the condition in which the cafeteria has been left at the close of lunch period. (Bet they are waiting for the special assembly at the end of the month if they keep the cafeteria in good condition!)

The stamp and bond committee is in need of a fund. The board decided that they should have one and Metha Woods, treasurer, is to see about it.

The question of exchanges of assemblies with other schools was discussed. The city schools are not prepared as yet, but Ken Hatt will see if South City could enter into such a plan.

BONDS AND STAMPS

A new drive is being planned for December 6 to 17, it is announced by the War Stamps and Bonds committee. During these two weeks they are planning to have what they call "Servicemen's Competition." It will be Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard, and Air Corps. There will be one day in both weeks for each of these services and on these days students will bring in the money for their favorite service.

During these two weeks they will have special assemblies sponsored by the committee.

Recently Eva Claus was appointed to the committee.

ABOUT SCHOOL

The following students have passed their beginner's swimming test: Eve Bryan, Ann Bianchi, Shirley Chester, Bernice Crowder, Donna Clifford, Marjorie Crawford, Margaret Davidson, Joanne Deasy, Dorothy Denman, Shirley Devlin, Edith Ericksen, Iris Evans, Lola Falvey, Ann Girdler, Merilyn Huber, Esther Hukari, Waverly Hamilton, Doris Hahn, Frances Hopkins, Doris Hete, Norma Hodne, Norma Hagen, Emma Ingram, Audrey Jarman, Audrey Kusber, Mary Kimler, Barbara Lorenz, Shirley Luther, Roberta Miller, Ruby Murphey, Roberta Marable, Dorothy Osmanson, Pamela Pulley, Dolores Pictens, Betty Ann Pistohl, Marvel Ramsey, Pat Rowley, June Spencer, La Vonne Sackett, Stephanie Schurba, Patsy Snee, Helen Stout, Barbara Somers, La Verne Torkelson, and Mary Wilson.

A soccer rule test was given this week. No wonder there have been no smiles on the girls' faces this week!

Something new has recently been added to the girls' gym. The girls' Block "J" society has installed a lotion dispenser for use by the girls of Jefferson.

G. P. A. L.

Archery and tennis have started this week.

Helen Oxley's softball team won all the games of the series. Those on the team were: Barbara Blecher, Barbara Callan, Alice D'Isep, Alice Godfrey, Esther Morgan, Augusta Cattaneo.

Nancy Sorg was captain of the other team.

Preparation for the swimming pageant has been discontinued.

NATURALIST SOCIETY

The Junior Naturalist society elected new officers for the term at their last meeting. For president, Tiny Clement was chosen; and for secretary-treasurer, Dot Nelson was re-elected.

The society has put up another display in their aquarium. They have chosen a termite colony collected by John Harville during the summer.

INDIANS OF RHYTHM

The assembly put on by the Indians of Rhythm last Friday was the best ever! The opening number was really solid with a piano solo by Barbara Gregor, and fillin' by the trumpet section. The opening selection was "Flash."

The program was for the Junior Red Cross membership drive and proved successful.

Emile Lemoine also played a solo and did very well.

A new vocalist was introduced and proved very promising.

Other vocalists were: Lillian Altman, Pat Morocco, and Daisy Yonan.

"Pistol Packing Mama" was another novelty sung by Pat Morocco, Lillian Altman, and Barbara Gregor.

Any paper you don't want? was the slogan going around the campus last week. You probably know the government needs waste paper badly, so "Truth or Consequences" the radio program, challenged every school in the country as to which could collect the most paper.

The school collecting the most will have an opportunity to hear the program at their school. Well, the Jefferson students didn't do so bad, so we'll hear the results later.

Woodrow Unit Whist Is Today

Woodrow Wilson P. T. A. has scheduled a whist party for today, November 18. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Hilda Heagney, 117 Miriam street, starting at 1:30 p. m.

The public is invited to attend and nice prizes have been procured, according to the unit.

Tuesday, November 16, the unit held its annual Teachers' tea at Woodrow Wilson school.

New Workers Twice As Susceptible

Men and women new to war industry are twice as susceptible as experienced employes to accidents, an analysis of records from the Studebaker corporation indicated today.

A study of lost-time accidents over the last year in the company's military truck division, where approximately one-third of the employes are newcomers, further brought out:

1. The first six months of employment were the 'danger' or 'adjustment' period. Not until the seventh month of employment did the accident curve fall to factory normal.

2. Despite fundamental safety instructions, workers of less than a year, representing only one-third of employment, were involved in 57 per cent of the accidents.

3. Although factory work is primarily a hand craft, foot injuries topped all others among accident classifications. Forty-five per cent more injuries were reported to feet than to hands.

John M. Roche, director of the Industrial Division of the National Safety council, viewed the findings as evidence that the hundreds who are daily quitting their customary occupations to respond patriotically to the appeal for more war workers need to be particularly alert during the early months in their new surroundings.

"We have surmised that new workers, unfamiliar with the precautions required for safe industrial work, have been responsible for more than their share of accidents," Roche said.

"The Studebaker statistics seem definitely to clinch the point. Virtually all industrial accidents are preventable. New factory workers should appreciate that the safeguards provided for them must be used and safe practices taught them must be observed for their own welfare.

"When new employes realize these facts, we shall have achieved considerable progress in our effort to reduce the 270,000,000 man-days annually lost to war production through industrial accidents."

MARRIAGE LICENSE

In the vital statistics compiled, last week, by W. H. Augustus, San Mateo county clerk, was the record of a marriage license issued to John W. Spittler, 23, San Francisco, and Concetta Valletta, 23, Daly City.

News From District Grammar Schools

AT WOODROW

ROOM 4

Shirley McGunn has recently enrolled in the high seventh grade.

ROOM 5

The student body is very proud to report that Woodrow Wilson elementary school was 100 per cent in the contributions to the Junior Red Cross.

ROOM 8

A new student entered the low seventh grade, this week. Her name is Waneta Underwood and she went to school in Ottawa, Kansas, before coming to this school.

ROOM 9

The boys and girls of the low sixth have studied and made sketches of the development of ways to tell time in connection with their social studies unit.

ROOM 12

Room 12 learned from the film, "Overland to California," that the modern transportation systems, trains, airplanes, and automobiles, follow the routes the pioneers, Indians, and buffalo used.

ROOM 14

Room 14 recently saw some interesting slides on the California Redwoods. This is part of their study about California.

ROOM 15

Room 15 welcomes Magdalina Merino to Woodrow Wilson elementary. Magdalina comes from San Francisco.

AT JEFFERSON

To mark the conclusion of their social science unit, "The Early Discoveries and Explorations of North America," children of the seventh grade of the Jefferson elementary school gave a little program dealing with the American Indians. These talks and reports about various Indian tribes were classified according to cultures.

During audience reading period, the sixth grade gave a dramatized version of "How Boots Befooled the King." Howard McDonald cleverly portrayed Boots and Emile Giacchino was the sagacious but much befooled king. The children enjoyed their dramatic version so much that they are preparing to give a second performance of this little story.

For their Nature Study period last week, the fifth grade studied about moths and butterflies. Special emphasis was placed on the wool eating moth, as this fitted in with their unit on wool. The children brought to class many beautiful moth specimens which were identified and mounted.

The fourth and third grades have been learning their language lessons by writing cooperative descriptive stories about Indian homes. As this descriptive writing was preceded by actual construction of miniature teepees, wikiups and hogans with a variety of materials, the children have had an ideal tie-up between their social science and language study.

The second and third graders are bringing in pictures of foods to be used in developing their grocery store unit. Next week they will segregate the pictures into piles showing the kinds of foods that make up a good diet. The children have drawn pictures showing the exterior and interior views of grocery stores in the neighborhood. Some of the interior pictures show store counters covered with different kinds of food. Other pictures show baskets of fruit and groceries.

At the recent weighing of the school children the school nurse found very few of them underweight. Most of the school children in the lower grades are enthusiastic milk drinkers, and the number of bottles of milk sold in these grades has increased to one hundred bottles of milk daily.

AT CROCKER

The pupils of Room 2 were sorry to lose one of their classmates, Delores Bird, who returned to Oklahoma.

Room 3 has a new chart on display. It is designed to show the good citizenship characteristics of each member of the class. Since its first week of use almost every student has earned a "Good Citizen's Flag."

Marlene Lowry of Room 4 had a very enjoyable time fishing at Hastings' slough on Saturday. Her family had a delightful dinner of striped bass as a result of her efforts.

In connection with the social science unit, Colonial Period, Room 6 was shown a film entitled, "Planter of Colonial Virginia."

Norma Boscolo of Room 6, with her parents, spent the week end in Petaluma.

Horace Siino, also of Room 6, spent Saturday and Sunday at La Honda, with his folks, where they have a summer home.

The visual culmination to "Living in the San Francisco Bay Area" was exhibited by the eighth grade during National Education Week, by a display of the 110 page class book, containing stories, free hand drawings, book reviews, a complete written resume of "Stories of San Mateo County," as well as individual class books, containing questions, study guides and individual collections of pictures. Correlated with the art period, every student participated in the effort to compete for making the cover of the class book. Russell Brauer received the majority votes, and his attractive crayon drawing of the bridge was selected. The index to the class book was printed and compiled by June Brandt, another member of the group.

THANKSGIVING DAY - 1943

Probably won't be a normal, American Thanksgiving Day holiday. But things just aren't being normal these days. Men and women in the armed forces won't be taking the day off. Theirs is, as ours must be, a steady, relentless task of driving the enemy back with whatever means are at hand.

Here at Farmers Meat Company we're trying, as hard as we can, to keep the supplies "rolling"—to keep our working civilians well-fed and healthy to win the war. Smoothing out the rough roads of food rationing is our job, and we intend to keep "firing" away until the war is won.

We carry a nice supply of poultry at all times. We believe we will have enough on order for holiday needs, but we're taking advance orders now.
